

Social Media Training – Client Testimonials

Barry Mitchell

Senior Consultant at Lightside Financial

“ I met Mick the latter end of last year, attended several of his meetings and have now become a member of 24/7 Business Networking. For many years I have considered myself an ardent networker but Mick made me realise that, in this day and age, you cannot truly be a networker if the social media is not part of your strategy. Many people have 'sold' me the concept of social media and I knew I had to get involved in, what was for me, a 21st century mystery but Mick is the only person to sit with me and show me how to do it, how to use it and this training is ongoing. Since meeting Mick, I have received genuine and profitable referrals and received ongoing practical, hands-on tuition on how best to use social media as an effective marketing tool. As a direct result of the education I have received from Mick and 24/7, I have expanded and merged my business, I have been approached by the financial press to be a contributor to their articles and magazines and am enjoying a much greater public profile. I cannot recommend Mick Holloway or 24/7 enough. Thank you Mick. less

Danielle Nanton

Cost Controller at DNV Group (Det Norske Veritas)

“ I had the pleasure of attending a 24-7 Barbican Social Media Training and Networking session last week which Mick also attended. His knowledge and input in relation to positively leveraging on line visibility and connections was personally and professionally beneficial. I would recommend Mick as a knowledgeable and informative professional.
